

Family Writing Challenge

SNOW STORY

1. Adjective: _____
2. Female family member's name: _____
3. A favorite animal: _____
4. Favorite family vacation spot: _____
5. Adjective to describe morning hair: _____
6. Our family's favorite holiday: _____
7. Oldest family member's favorite tradition: _____
8. Unusual gift someone gave: _____
9. Unforgettable family holiday mishap: _____
10. Adverb: _____
11. Past-tense verb: _____
12. Adverb: _____
13. Past-tense verb: _____
14. Family's favorite song: _____
15. Smallest family member's favorite toy: _____
16. Adverb: _____
17. Celebratory word our family likes to say: _____
18. Family's favorite treat: _____
19. Past-tense verb: _____
20. Past-tense verb: _____
21. Family's favorite sports team: _____
22. Catchphrase: _____

Once a _____¹ polar bear was born out of a winter snowstorm. Her name was _____². After the snow settled, she saw a _____³.

She followed it to _____⁴. Snow sparkled everywhere she looked. Families hurried by, _____⁵ smiles on their faces. "Happy _____⁶!" someone shouted.

The polar bear realized she wanted a family, too. They would _____⁷, and give gifts like _____⁸, and laugh together over _____⁹. She chose a family and _____¹⁰ poking out of a snowbank. Nearby, a family was searching high and low. The polar bear plucked the toy out of the snowbank and _____¹⁶ crept toward the family. "Is this what you're looking for?" she asked.

_____¹¹ toward them. As soon as they saw her, the family _____¹² _____¹³. The next family was too busy singing _____¹⁴ to pay her any mind. She was about to give up, when she spotted a _____¹⁵

" _____¹⁷!" they cheered. Then, the little boy said, "Can the polar bear join us for _____¹⁸?"

"Of course!" Grandma answered. The polar bear _____¹⁹ and _____²⁰.

"She should join the _____²¹!" "Now that," Uncle said, would be _____²²!"